

The Kipper Family - Folk Singers (as far as we know) probably the greatest Norfolk export

"I'm Henry Kipper and this is my boy Sid. We'd like to tell you some of our old stories and sing some of our old songs, and talk about 'the old days'."

...here we all are

This website and related its social media are probably the closest we'll come to a Kipper fan club. Stories, quotes, articles, lyrics, photos, video and more. Including (cod) pieces (stolen) from the official organ of Sid Kipper. Contributions supplied by Sid Kipper, Chris Sugden, Molly Barrett (Dick's ex-wife) and several fans (marked).

Your Old Stories

Share some of your old Kipper stories at our: FACEBOOK GROUP

Interaction with the FB Group is very much encouraged you can also tell your old Kipper stories on this website. I switched on page comments again as I worked out how to stop spam posts.

The Final Fillet

Sid Kipper - "Wit, Wisdom & Walnuts"

Sid retired to spend more time with his ferrets. His original website once could be found at sidkipper.co.uk. There was some strange bloke called Chris Sugden running it, where there was a huge amount of Sid Kipper. It then moved to www.spineless.idps.co.uk. Unfortunately it then vanished along with Sid, along with all the silver. But! You can see the old site at Web Archive (snapshot 01/Sept/2014) Note: quite a lot has been imported (cut and pasted) to this website more info Chris wrote a lot of books see: Amazon- Chris Sugden

Chris Sugden aka Sid Kipper died 3rd April 2024
New on page this site: In memory of Chis Sugden.

Two Faced and Gutless

Was the final fillet of kipper: In 2011 there were two new Kipper albums: a Kipper Family album of previously unreleased material: Two Faced, and another album by Sid Kipper: Gutless. Gutless thereya.

Fresh Yesterday

The best Kipper Family experience

Recorded at the Trunch village hall. Sid and Henry in full kipper flow. Witness the comic talent of the duo as they tell some of their old stories and sing some of their old songs. You may recognise the tunes, but the words will bring a new dimension to folk singing!

The Kipper Family website

This website is by a fan for the fans. It exists in order to collect together all it can of the Kippers that can be found. It continues to expand as items are recovered, found, or sent in by fans. It will continue to exist while there is still demand for the memory of their talent. Why is Sid Kipper included? You ask. Surely the “family” includes Sid Kipper too? Even if the act was “The Kipper Family”, after that Sid went his own way as the son of Kipper. Therefore, the family includes Sid Kipper.

Best fishes!
