

This website is completely non-profit.

Copyright Info:

This website makes no ownership claims to any of the works of others on this site and seeks to make no profit on them. The intention is simply to collate in one place fragmented items from around the internet from the specific artists namely:

Sid Kipper material is copyright Chris Sugden.

Kipper Family material is copyright Chris Sugden and Dick Nudds.

Kipper Family album sleeves (as opposed to Sid's) copyright Molly Barrett (formerly Nudds) also some of the photos are copyright Clive Tully.

Much of the Kipper Family and a certain amount of Sid material was supplied to us by Chris Sugden. However the Kipper Family was a duo! Therefore some of it was not his to give and so not available or indeed given.

We don't publish or distribute the music which seems to be formally copyright with Leader Records but now with Celtic Music.

Much of the written stuff is copyright by Mousehold Press but that company it seems is being wound up.

Lyrics:

From the Sid Kipper site regarding the song lyrics on this site: "In passing we disapprove of its (this websites) policy of posting copyright lyrics without permission or guarantee of accuracy."

Note: you once could find authentic Sid Kipper lyrics at: Sidkipper.co.uk and then www.spineless.idps.co.uk but some elements have been copy and pasted from Archive.org, see this note:

From the Archive of Sid Kipper

Note: Some Sid Kipper material has been cut and pasted from the old Sid Kipper website (expired) which then features on Archive.org. It has been copy and pasted simply to save you the job of having to drill down into the old bowels of the internet to find it as you came here to find Kipper gems. This is copyright Chris Sugden and we make no claims to original material or ownership thereof.

Useage/pictures etc.:

You may use any elements from this site on your own site but you must credit it to www.kipperfamily.co.uk with a link.

Futher more many more of these images and content while not ours were not stollen and were given to us in kind. Though indeed a certain amount was stolen and some used with permission from other sites.

KipperFamily.co.uk:

This website is a fan site, compiled by a fan for the fans, with contributions from others, it is in no way an official website, though it's very close!

Website Privacy

This website does not re-use your data for anything but running the website. Your data is not farmed by me for use elsewhere.

However, it does use the WordPress web platform which stores info on a private database in order to run the website. It does use a statistics function to see how much web traffic it gets (wp-statistics, histats, Google). I cannot know what Google is up to.

Therefore, I cannot vouch for the use of your data by Google and Facebook. If you use Facebook that is your choice anyway. You can use a blocker to stop Google (if you have Firefox or Chrome there are plugins like Ghostery, DuckDuckGo and uBlock Origin, they block trackers and adverts) or the Brave browser.
