

This site was made by, and is run by, a fan, but really, after all these years it remains online for you, the fans. It costs money for it to be online (webhosting costs and the domain name).

It really is simple: no donations, no Kipper website.

I did have adverts on the site once which I removed as they were annoying for you. So the only support is from people who donate to costs.

How to donate to website costs:

- PayPal button (they take commission)
- PayPal direct to email (they don't take commission)
- Cheque (does anyone have those now?)
- Bank transfer

PayPal donate button (they take commission):

Please note: it will say you are sending to "T-Media", that is my wife's PayPal name, TyLean (ie T). After you may see a cryptic message about a Christmas album, this is not a Kipper one! (this is a project of hers not related to Kippers but PayPal is a simple beast)

PayPal direct to email (no commission taken):

You can also donate by PayPal to my wifes account via email address: tyleantuijl@gmail.com (you just goto PayPal and send money to that email address) it's better to send it as a personal transfer, not a service or business one as PayPal take silly commission.

Cheques:

For cheques my postal address is: Justin Tuijl. Lochcarron East Church, Lochcarron, Strathcarron. IV54 8YS

Bank transfer:

Bank details: Royal Bank of Scotland

Account name: J TUIJL

Account number: 00651327

Sort code: 83-26-19
