

Joan Sugarbeet

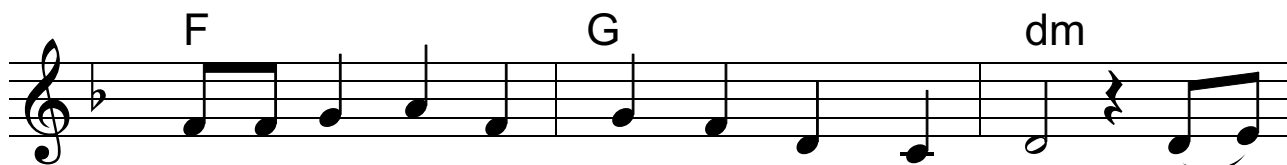

The Kipper Family

1. There were three men came out of the East their
2. They let her lie for a very long time till the
3. They hi - red men with hands so strong to 4. They rolled her a - long and a - long the road till at 5. Here's lit - tle Lady Joan in a chi - na cup and for - tunes for to try, and these three men made a rain from heaven did fall. Then lit - tle la - dy Joan sprung pull her out of bed They cut her in half a - Cant - ley they did meet. And there they made a lumps all in a bowl. And lit - tle La - dy Joan in the so - lemn vow Joan Su - gar - beet should die. They up her head and soon a - mazed them all. They round the waist and threw a - way her head. They bloo - dy great stack of poor Joan Su - gar - beet. They chi - na cup she proved the swee - ter girl. For the plowed, they so - wed, they har - rowed her in, threw let her stand till mid - win - ter till she hi - red men with sharp pitch - forks who hi - red men with chop - pers so huge to of - fice boy can't ba - lance his books nor clods u - pon her head, and looked both flac - cid and green and piled her by the road. But the chop her in - to bits. And the keep his desk so neat And the these three men made a so - lemn vow Joan little La - dy Joan she grew a big bot - tom and dri - ver he served her worse than that for he Sugar Cor - po - ra - tion served her worse than that for they housewife can't en - joy her cup of P. G. Tips with - out a Su - gar - beet was dead. so be - came a queen.

threw her up - on his load. drowned her in a pit.
bit of Joan Sugar - beet.