

The lightweight dirge

The Kipper Family

am

1. Our mas - ters of old have now passed a - way. At 2. His life it was long, which made ours seem longer. When
3. He was fond of animals, es - pecial - ly of horses. So 4. On his common land, we had gra - zing rights. But 5. Now he is gone, his life is comp - lete. We peace and at rest we may all see him lay. We've we feed him hem - lock, that just made him stronger. When we we pulled the plough while he went to race - courses. He you don't get fat ea - ting grass eve - ry night. He will place a large stone at his head and his feet. These

G

am

G one con - so - la - tion now we are un - mas - tered, un - cut off his beard, and set fire to his stub - ble, he al - so loved child - ren and tried with - out cease, by gave us each year a long ho - li - day. That stones are all pre - pa - red, in - deed, truth to tell, that was them

F

am

til his last breath he was a real bas - tard un - tied out cottages, and re - duced them to rub - ble.
night and by day, to make their num - bers in - crease.
came in the winter with - out a - ny pay.
fal - ling on him that sent him to hell.

am

G

F

G

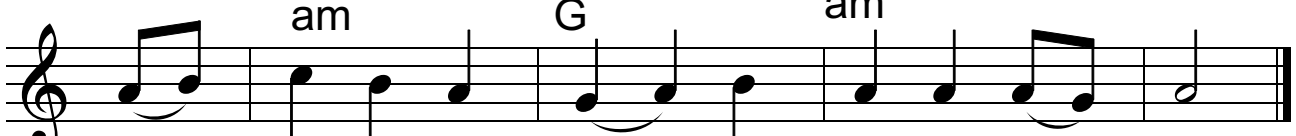

Ev - er - y man had a good word for he

am

G

am

but we'll not re - peat it in com - pa - ny.